Sheet 3 — Supervised Release

Judgment—Page 3 of 8DEFENDANT: TARYN GOIN NAIDOO

CASE NUMBER: 1:18cr141LG-RPM-001

SUPERVISED RELEASE

- * Upon release from imprisonment, you will be on supervised release for a term of : fifteen (15) years as to Counts 1s and fifteen (15) years as to Count 3s of the Superseding Indictment. Pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3624(e), the terms of supervised release shall be served concurrently for a total term of fifteen (15) years.

MANDATORY CONDITIONS

1. You must not commit another federal, state or local crime.
2. You must not unlawfully possess a controlled substance.
3. You must refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance. You must submit to one drug test within 15 days of release from imprisonment and at least two periodic drug tests thereafter, as determined by the court.
☐ The above drug testing condition is suspended, based on the court's determination that you pose a low risk of future substance abuse. (check if applicable)
4. ☒ You must make restitution in accordance with 18 U.S.C. §§ 3663 and 3663A or any other statute authorizing a sentence of restitution. (check if applicable)
5. ☒ You must cooperate in the collection of DNA as directed by the probation officer. (check if applicable)
6. ☒ You must comply with the requirements of the Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act (34 U.S.C. § 20901, et seq.) as directed by the probation officer, the Bureau of Prisons, or any state sex offender registration agency in the location where you reside, work, are a student, or were convicted of a qualifying offense. (check if applicable)
7. ☐ You must participate in an approved program for domestic violence. (check if applicable)

You must comply with the standard conditions that have been adopted by this court as well as with any other conditions on the attached page.

DEFENDANT: TARYN GOIN NAIDOO

CASE NUMBER: 1:18cr141LG-RPM-001

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

As part of your supervised release, you must comply with the following standard conditions of supervision. These conditions are imposed because they establish the basic expectations for your behavior while on supervision and identify the minimum tools needed by probation officers to keep informed, report to the court about, and bring about improvements in your conduct and condition.

1. You must report to the probation office in the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside within 72 hours of your release from imprisonment, unless the probation officer instructs you to report to a different probation office or within a different time frame.
2. After initially reporting to the probation office, you will receive instructions from the court or the probation officer about how and when you must report to the probation officer, and you must report to the probation officer as instructed.
3. You must not knowingly leave the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside without first getting permission from the court or the probation officer.
4. You must answer truthfully the questions asked by your probation officer.
5. You must live at a place approved by the probation officer. If you plan to change where you live or anything about your living arrangements (such as the people you live with), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
6. You must allow the probation officer to visit you at any time at your home or elsewhere, and you must permit the probation officer to take any items prohibited by the conditions of your supervision that he or she observes in plain view.
7. You must work full time (at least 30 hours per week) at a lawful type of employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you do not have full-time employment you must try to find full-time employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you plan to change where you work or anything about your work (such as your position or your job responsibilities), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer at least 10 days in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
8. You must not communicate or interact with someone you know is engaged in criminal activity. If you know someone has been convicted of a felony, you must not knowingly communicate or interact with that person without first getting the permission of the probation officer.
9. If you are arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours.
10. You must not own, possess, or have access to a firearm, ammunition, destructive device, or dangerous weapon (i.e., anything that was designed, or was modified for, the specific purpose of causing bodily injury or death to another person such as nunchakus or tasers).
11. You must not act or make any agreement with a law enforcement agency to act as a confidential human source or informant without first getting the permission of the court.
12. If the probation officer determines that you pose a risk to another person (including an organization), the probation officer may require you to notify the person about the risk and you must comply with that instruction. The probation officer may contact the person and confirm that you have notified the person about the risk.
13. You must follow the instructions of the probation officer related to the conditions of supervision.

U.S. Probation Office Use Only

A U.S. probation officer has instructed me on the conditions specified by the court and has provided me with a written copy of this judgment containing these conditions. For further information regarding these conditions, see Overview of Probation and Supervised Release Conditions, available at: www.uscourts.gov.

CASE NUMBER: 1:18cr141LG-RPM-001

SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

1. At the completion of the defendant's term of imprisonment, the defendant shall be surrendered to the custody of Immigration and Customs Enforcement for removal proceedings consistent with the Immigration and Nationality Act. If removed, the defendant shall not re-enter the United States without the written permission of the Secretary of Homeland Security. The term of supervised release shall be non-reporting while the defendant is residing outside of the United States. If the defendant re-enters the United States within the term of supervised release, he is to report to the nearest U.S. Probation Office within 72 hours of his arrival.
2. The defendant is prohibited from using any Internet-capable device, or computer, including computers at businesses, private homes, libraries, schools, or other public locations, unless he is granted permission or authority in advance by the supervising U.S. Probation Officer. The probation office will not unreasonably limit the defendant's access to Internet capable devices.
3. The defendant shall submit to a search of any computer used by the defendant, to include passive (for example, monitoring software) and active (for example, looking at files on local drive) searches.
4. The defendant shall participate in a program approved for the treatment and monitoring of sex offenders, as directed by the probation office.
5. At the direction of the supervising U.S. Probation Officer, the defendant shall submit to polygraph examination(s) by a licensed polygraph examiner, as approved by the U.S. Probation Officer, and shall pay the cost of the examination.
6. The defendant shall comply with the requirements of the Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act as directed by the probation officer, the Bureau of Prisons, or any state sex offender registration agency in which he resides, works, is a student, or was convicted of a qualifying offense.
7. The defendant shall submit to a search, at any time, with or without a warrant, and by any law enforcement or probation officer, of his person, and any property, house, residence, vehicle, papers, computer, electronic communication or data storage devices, or media and effects, upon reasonable suspicion concerning a violation of a condition of supervised release or unlawful conduct by the defendant, or by any probation officer in the lawful discharge of the officer's supervision functions. Any search must be conducted at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner, based on reasonable suspicion of a violation of a condition of supervised release or unlawful conduct.
8. The defendant shall provide the probation office with access to any requested financial information.
9. The defendant shall not incur new credit charges, or open additional lines of credit without the approval of the probation office, and unless the defendant is in compliance with the installment payment schedule.
10. The defendant shall abstain from consuming alcoholic beverages for the duration of the term of supervised release.
11. The defendant shall participate in a program of testing and/or treatment for alcohol abuse or drug abuse, as directed by the probation office. The defendant shall contribute to the cost of treatment in accordance with the probation office Copayment Policy.
12. In the event that the defendant resides in, or visits, a jurisdiction where marijuana, or marijuana products, have been approved, legalized, or decriminalized, the defendant shall not possess, ingest, or otherwise use marijuana, or marijuana products, unless prescribed by a licensed medical practitioner and for a legitimate medical purpose.
13. The defendant shall not possess, ingest, or otherwise use a synthetic cannabinoid, or other synthetic narcotic, unless prescribed by a licensed medical practitioner and for a legitimate medical purpose.

SCHEDULE OF PAYMENTS

Having assessed the defendant's ability to pay, payment of the total criminal monetary penalties is due as follows:

- * A ☒ Lump sum payment of $ 52,200.00 due immediately, balance due
- ☐ not later than _____, or
- ☐ in accordance with ☐ C, ☐ D, ☐ E, or ☐ F below; or
- B ☒ Payment to begin immediately (may be combined with ☐ C, ☒ D, or ☒ F below); or
- C ☐ Payment in equal _____ (e.g., weekly, monthly, quarterly) installments of $ _____ over a period of _____ (e.g., months or years), to commence _____ (e.g., 30 or 60 days) after the date of this judgment; or
- D ☒ Payment in equal monthly (e.g., weekly, monthly, quarterly) installments of $ 500.00 over a period of 180 months (e.g., months or years), to commence 30 days (e.g., 30 or 60 days) after release from imprisonment to a term of supervision; or
- E ☐ Payment during the term of supervised release will commence within _____ (e.g., 30 or 60 days) after release from imprisonment. The court will set the payment plan based on an assessment of the defendant's ability to pay at that time; or
- F ☒ Special instructions regarding the payment of criminal monetary penalties:

The payment of the restitution shall begin while the defendant is incarcerated. The payment of the fine shall begin after the balance of the restitution has been paid in full. Upon release, any unpaid balance of the fine shall be paid at a rate of $150.00 per month, beginning 30 days after the restitution obligation of $500.00 per month has been paid in full. In the event that the Court ordered monetary penalties are not paid in full prior to the termination of supervised release, the defendant is ordered to enter into a written agreement with the Financial Litigation Unit of the U.S. Attorney's Office for payment of the remaining balances. Additionally, the value of any future discovered assets may be applied to offset the balance of criminal monetary penalties. The defendant may be included in the Treasury Offset Program allowing qualified federal benefits to be applied to offset the balance of criminal monetary penalties.

Unless the court has expressly ordered otherwise, if this judgment imposes imprisonment, payment of criminal monetary penalties is due during the period of imprisonment. All criminal monetary penalties, except those payments made through the Federal Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program, are made to the clerk of the court.

The defendant shall receive credit for all payments previously made toward any criminal monetary penalties imposed.

☐ Joint and Several
